

TRAVEL & HOTEL INFORMATION

PLANNING YOUR JOURNEY

Brussels is a well connected city, as you would expect from any Capital city. Whether your looking to fly, drive, get the bus or drive to the convention, connections are easy from across Europe and further afield. The hotel is centrally located in the heart of the capital, making connections from the main transport hubs easy and at reasonable costs.

FLYING

Brussels Airport is served by 59 airlines from across the globe including mainstream and low cost carriers, receiving flights from hundreds of destinations.

The Hotel does not provide a shuttle service to and from the airport. An estimated one way journey by Taxi is approximately 50 Euros and can be located on Level +2 for arriving passengers. The hotel is located 14kms from the airport. Train and Bus connections are also available, but may require changes. For Rail connection catch the Intercity Service to Brussels Nord (North) station and change to the Metro to Beurs Station. The journey time is approximately 30minutes and runs every 40 minutes. Beurs Station is approximately 2 minutes walk from the hotel.

RAILWAYS

Brussels is served by both Domestic and International Rail services from across Europe. All international services arrive at Brussels Midi Station.

London / Rotterdam / Amsterdam

Liege / Cologne / Frankfurt

Amsterdam / Essen / Dusseldorf / Cologne / Liege / Paris / Lille

Lille / Paris CDG / Lyon / Avignon / Marseille / Montpellier / Perpignan

Connections from the Brussels Midi (South) Station are via taxi or Metro, the latter being a 7 min journey to Beurs Station which run every 5 minutes. The hotel is located approximately 2 minutes from the hotel on foot.

DRIVING

COVID 19 REGULATIONS

Covid 19 precautions and regulations are changing all the time and so it would be impossible for us to include them in this document. Please check the latest requirements for international travel into Belgium before you travel. The link below is to the official website for the Belgian Government covering Entry Requirements under C19 protocols.

<https://www.info-coronavirus.be/en/travels/>

All Visitors to Belgium must complete a Passenger Locator Form, regardless of your method of travel, unless your visit is less than 48hours long to the country. To do this click or use the link below:

<https://travel.info-coronavirus.be/public-health-passenger-locator-form>

It also goes without saying you need to check your own nations requirements for re-entry on arrival. If you are transiting through more than one nation, you must also check that nations requirements prior to travelling.

IMMIGRATION

UK PARTICIPANTS - ENTRY

The rules for travelling or working in European countries changed on 1 January 2021:

- you can travel to countries in the Schengen area for up to 90 days in any 180-day period without a visa. This applies if you travel as a tourist, to visit family or friends, to attend business meetings, cultural or sports events, or for short-term studies or training
- if you are travelling to Belgium and other Schengen countries without a visa, make sure your whole visit is within the 90-day limit. Visits to Schengen countries within the previous 180 days before you travel count towards your 90 days
- to stay longer, to work or study, for business or for other reasons, you will need to meet the Belgian government's entry requirements. Check with the Belgian Embassy what type of visa and/or work permit, you may need
- if you stay in Belgium with a residence permit or long-stay visa, this does not count towards your 90-day visa-free limit

At Belgian border control, you may need to use separate lanes from EU, EEA and Swiss citizens when queueing. Your passport may be stamped on entry and exit. You may also need to:

- show a return or onward ticket
- show you have enough money for your stay

Please check the Government guidance on Entry requirements prior to travel to ensure the information above is correct at the time of travel.

NON SCHENGEN NATIONS - ENTRY

A number of nations do not need Visa's to enter Europe, however some do, these are in addition to any Covid 19 precautions and measures. The link below will give you information should you require any additional visa requirements and provide details on acceptable documents to enter Europe.
